

SIMPLIFYING COMPLIANCE

Royalty Audits

Reveal Under-Reporting of Royalties and License Fees

Creating a successful licensing compliance program requires a self-sustaining effort that leverages multiple compliance tools and onsite audits to maximize ROI. From gaps caused by outdated or manual processes to disconnects between product teams and the individuals responsible for reporting to intentional under reporting, 85% of licensees have errors in their royalty reports.

Expert Audit Support, Tailored to Your Needs

Connor is re-imagining licensing compliance with a globally distributed team of consultants with deep Big 4 and industry experience paired with local expertise in region. Our technology-first approach driven by your specific needs is powered by our dedicated team of passionate, compliance experts.

Global Presence

Globally distributed team with authentic regional experience

Technology First Approach

Best-of-breed technology & analytics with dedicated support

Compliance Focused

100% focused on compliance with teams organized by industry

Cost Efficient

Local teams with lower OPEX

Consistent Support

Significantly lower turnover compared to other firms

Expert Team

Large compliance teams with deep expertise and dedicated leadership oversight

Proven and Measurable Results

Connor has a proven track record of helping clients build a self-sustaining license compliance program. These programs drive unmatched ROI to clients while maintaining positive relationships between clients and their licensees using clear, consistent and accurate communications throughout the audit process.

Get Started with Unparalleled Expertise and Service

Getting started with Connor is extremely simple. To highlight our unparalleled expertise and service, we provide efficient proof-of-concepts that are not resource intensive. Contact us today!

